June Strickland has lived locally since 2007 and is retired. She now works towards maintaining a pleasant, clean and healthy environment within our expanding locality, for business, leisure and the elderly. The ambiances of the village and care of its listed buildings are of prime importance as they encourage tourism. She is a Trustee of the Loddon Town Estate Charity and a council representative with the Loddon and District Business Association. June also has an interest in keeping public footpaths open. She is a willing listener if anybody has concerns
